

VIP students with a yen to entertain

SIXTEEN Japanese students treated Broxbourne residents to a display of traditional dance and song as well as demonstrating their skills at origami during a recent visit to the borough.

The students, on a three-week trip to the UK from Narita City on the main island of Japan, met deputy mayor Carol Crump during a tour of the council offices in Cheshunt.

Mrs Crump also accompanied the group to Emmanuel Lodge where they met residents at one of the borough's sheltered housing schemes,

It was here they entertained their hosts with a display of traditional Japanese arts.

SHOWTIME: Students from Narita City, pictured with deputy mayor Carol Crump, demonstrated traditional Japanese song and dance as well as origami paper folding during their visit to Broxbourne

12 Herald, Thursday, April 3, 2008 (HEH) www.herald24.co.uk

Japanese students out on a show

A GROUP of 16 Japanese students recently met Deputy Mayor of Broxbourne, Cllr Mrs Carol Crump, at the Mayor's Parlour. They looked around the council chamber at Bishops' College and learnt how local government operates in the UK. They then joined Mrs Crump in the Mayor's Parlour and talked to her about her year as Deputy Mayor and her pleasure at being nominated as Mayor-elect for 2008/09.

Then, with Mrs Crump, they visited Emmanuel Lodge to meet residents at one of the Borough's sheltered housing schemes. The students spent the afternoon entertaining their hosts with a display of Japanese dance and song and demonstrations of origami.